Secretary of State, 9 1936

Washington, DEPARTMENT OF STATE

458, July 8, 10 a. m.

Following proclamation by Marshal ~~_____~~ has just been distributed in Italian and Amharic.

"In the event of disorders or riots in the city all inhabitants, whether Italians, foreigners, or natives, must remain in their own dwellings.

Anybody who may be on the street must seek refuge in the first enclosed place he finds or place himself under the protection of Italian troops.

Violation of this order is dangerous for the trans-gressors themselves as they may be confused with the instigators of the disorders or riots and may be put to death."
